

PAKISTAN ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION (PELTA)

PELTA is one of the most thriving communities of English Language Teachers in Pakistan. It supports teachers with Continuing Professional Development (CPD) that helps them improve every day. Courses and materials are provided online, as well as through one day workshops and short courses so development is convenient, even for busy teachers.

Membership of PELTA provide teachers with unlimited access to high-quality development courses and resources, all year round. As a PELTA member you can avail discounts and scholarships to all the teaching programs, run at ICD.

THIS INCLUDES:

- Chance to enter the world's biggest English Language Teachers' Community and learn state-of-the-art techniques and methods of English Language teaching.
- Access to free webinars and seminars on Teacher Trainings.
- Access to the Cambridge Bookshelf of unlimited books about teaching methodologies.
- Networking with a global community.
- Job opportunities from throughout the world.

PELTA membership will help improve your expertise in your own department and deepening your understanding in specialized areas of language while motivating you to be the best for your learners.
